

Supplier FAQ Website

Third-Party Vendors

What if I am working with a third party that provides Transfers of Value (TOVs) on Illumina's behalf? (Hover over "TOVs" for definition)

Before you begin working with any third party, it is your responsibility to contact Illumina's Compliance department at sunshineact@illumina.com.

What is a TOV?

A Transfer of Value (TOV) is basically anything of value you provide to someone else. Examples of TOVs include donations, grants, sponsorships, royalties, travel and meal expenses (paid directly or reimbursed), payments for services rendered to Illumina, payments related to clinical trials conducted on Illumina's behalf, no-charge products provided for evaluation and demonstration purposes or as part of a research collaboration, fees paid by Illumina to rent space owned by a Covered Recipient, etc.

Supplier Request and Evaluation Form

Does the Supplier handle third-party TOVs on behalf of Illumina? (Hover over "TOVs" for definition)
If yes, email Compliance at sunshineact@illumina.com for further direction.

What is a TOV?

A Transfer of Value (TOV) is basically anything of value you provide to someone else. Examples of TOVs include donations, grants, sponsorships, royalties, travel and meal expenses (paid directly or reimbursed), payments for services rendered to Illumina, payments related to clinical trials conducted on Illumina's behalf, no-charge products provided for evaluation and demonstration purposes or as part of a research collaboration, fees paid by Illumina to rent space owned by a Covered Recipient, etc.